

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Barrister Executive Suites, Inc Announces New Opening in the Prestigious 100 Wilshire Building, Santa Monica.

Los Angeles, CA/May 23, 2008 - Barrister Executive Suites Inc, announced today that it is relocating its downtown Santa Monica location to the prestigious 100 Wilshire Building. Plans to open doors on the new facility are scheduled for June 1st, 2008. The executive suite center is located on the 9th floor of the renowned building, located on the corner of Ocean Ave & Wilshire Blvd.

“We are extremely proud to be in this building.” said Vince Otte, Chairman. “Who wouldn’t want to have an office with a floor to ceiling view of Santa Monica Beach. The view is amazing, especially at sunset. There’s no place like it in the world!”

The highly sought after location offers incredible views of the coastline, Santa Monica Pier, and is adjacent to the renowned 3rd St Promenade shopping district. In addition to the many local attractions and key location features, the executive suite center includes a full range of amenities and services. Full time and part time packages are available, and give clients access to a wide range of service options. Key amenities include professional receptionist, telephone answering/call screening, conference/meeting room space, mail sorting/delivery, lunchroom facilities, coffee/beverage service, High speed internet access, telecommunications equipment, IT support, photocopiers, facsimile, and more.

Barrister Executive Suites, Inc has been a long established industry leader for over 40 years. The firms 23 So Cal locations provide fast, flexible, cost effective offices designed to accommodate the needs of most businesses. “Our clients range from small home based business all the way to Fortune 100 companies. We have packages that can be custom tailored to suit any need” says Carrie Gates, Vice President-Leasing & Marketing. “By letting us handle all their workplace needs, they are able to operate more efficiently and spend more time focusing on their core business.”

“We are thrilled with the new location. The response has been amazing. Our clients are able to gain from the image and prestige by officing in this building,” said Dorothy Bright, President & C.O.O. When asked for her thoughts on the executive suites’ business, Dorothy had this to say. “By taking advantage of our flexible lease terms our clients are able to benefit more than ever from the reduced risk and lowered financial liability. This offers a significant advantage over conventional leases. Having that type of agility is more important than ever to most business.”

To learn more about the company and their other Southern California locations, please visit www.barrister-suites.com