Barrister Executive Suites, Inc. Opens at 475 Washington Blvd. in Marina del Rey

Los Angeles, CA, April 14, 2011 - On May 1, 2011, Barrister Executive Suites, Inc. will open their doors at 475 Washington Blvd. in Marina del Rey, CA. The new Marina del Rey suite will offer the same premium services as provided at Barrister's other 20 locations in Southern California. Blocks away from the beach, 475 Washington Blvd., has already attracted prospective tenants and Barrister has begun preleasing.

Barrister Executive Suites, Inc. is excited about this new location which will offer a truly innovative work environment for their tenants. Future tenants will enjoy natural light throughout the suite with floor to ceiling windows and access to an outdoor atrium seating. Two conference rooms in the suite will offer internet, phones, and a flat screen TV. The kitchen and reception area will be contemporary and offer complimentary beverage service to tenants and their clients. Barrister has trained staff at 475 Washington who will answer all incoming calls, greet clients, and assist tenants.

Barrister Executive Suites, Inc. caters to all types of businesses due to the levels of packages offered to tenants. Whether a satellite office for an international corporation, or an entrepreneur's first office, the flexibility of an executive suite office will eliminate unnecessary overhead costs and administrative distractions. Full time offices can be rented starting on a month to month term. Furnished and unfurnished offices come equipped with phones and internet. Full time office tenants have 24-7 access to the fully furnished suite which includes a copy room, conference rooms, reception area, kitchen, and atrium. A full time reception staff is onsite to answer phones, handle incoming and outgoing mail, and greet any guests. Barrister also offers virtual office packages with various levels of service. Services include mail handling, conference room usage, and telephone answering. Virtual office clients can have the image of renting a full time office at a fraction of the cost.

Barrister Executive Suites, Inc. provides turnkey office space, virtual offices, and meeting room facilities - all backed by professional telephone answering, reception services, conference room privileges, and mail sorting/delivery. With 21 locations throughout Southern California, Barrister Executive Suites, Inc. operates with a foundation of longevity and financial stability in providing its tenants with a business-friendly environment coupled with premier customer service.
